Riverbottom Decades, 2005, Sally Bolding, 0974170925, 9780974170923, LeveePressTwo, 2005.

The stories from nine generations along the Mississippi are tales as dark as the fertile soil, and as light as the "blowy" cotton. They are richly told as only master storyteller Sally Bolding can in the Southern tradition of William Faulkner and Carson McCullers. Bolding touches on race relations in a segregated South, spellbinds with (sometimes humorous) murderous relations, and warms with wartime love, and never fails to create characters and situations that are fresh and unforgettable.
